WHEREAS, as a result of the public health emergency and the precautions recommended by health authorities, many residents and businesses in the City of Toledo have experienced or expect soon to experience sudden and unexpected income loss; and

WHEREAS, during this local emergency and in the interest of protecting the public health and preventing transmission of COVID-19, it is essential to avoid unnecessary housing displacement to protect the City's affordable housing stock and to prevent housed individuals from falling into homelessness; and

WHEREAS, the City of Toledo is invested in helping to maintain occupancy during a global pandemic through a rental assistance program and other means as a way to protect all residents of the City; and

WHEREAS, unemployment compensation, rental assistance and other dollars are being made available to Ohioans so they can meet their basic needs but these dollars have been slow to make their way into people's bank accounts;

1770.01 Definition

For the purposes of this Chapter, "Tenant" means a person entitled under a rental agreement to the use and occupancy of residential premises to the exclusion of others.

1770.02 Tenant's right to pay to stay prior to the filing of an eviction action (Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer)

(a) At any time prior to the filing of an action under Ohio Revised Code 1923 for nonpayment of rent by a landlord, a Tenant shall have the right to pay the landlord all past due rent with reasonable late fees to avoid the filing of such action for the restitution of the lands or tenements.

If the Tenant tenders all accrued rent and reasonable late fees to the landlord, the landlord shall accept the tendered payment and allow the Tenant to maintain the tenancy.

(b) If the Tenant tenders all past due rent with reasonable late fees to the landlord prior to the filing of an action under Ohio Revised Code 1923 and the landlord refuses the tender, the Tenant's tender of all past due rent with reasonable late fees shall be a defense to any action filed by the landlord against the Tenant for nonpayment of rent.

1770.03 Tenant's right to pay to stay prior to an eviction judgment (Judgment for Restitution)

(a) After the filing of an action under Ohio Revised Code 1923 for nonpayment of rent but prior to a judgment, the Tenant shall have the right to pay the landlord all past due rent, reasonable late fees and court costs so that the Tenant may maintain the tenancy. If the Tenant tenders all past due rent amounts, including late fees and court costs, the landlord must accept the payment. Upon receipt of the payment, the landlord shall dismiss the action against the Tenant.

(b) If the Tenant tenders all past due rent with reasonable late fees and court costs to the landlord prior to a judgment and the landlord refuses the tender, the Tenant’s tender of all past due rent, reasonable late fees and court costs shall be a defense to the eviction action filed by the landlord against the Tenant for nonpayment of rent.

1770.04 Rent receipt required

The landlord shall provide the Tenant with a signed receipt for the security deposit and all rental payments except for payments made by personal check of the Tenant, at the time the security deposit or rental payments are made.

1770.05 Other Causes for Eviction

This Chapter in no way limits the ability of a landlord to initiate an eviction action for reasons other than solely for non-payment of rent.
